HOURS OF GRACE

The Divine Office is the means by which the Church fulfills the Scriptural teaching to pray without ceasing; the prayers of the hours are the wheels on which the inner life of Christians runs. In this course, the students will examine the historical context in which this lifeblood of liturgical prayer was formed. Different forms will be discussed, including the Roman Breviary, the Monastic Diurnal, the present Liturgy of the Hours, and the Byzantine canonical hours, with emphasis on our transformation through this foundational expression of prayer.

For more information on this course and many others visit: <https://instituteofcatholicculture.org/events/hours-of-grace>
